NH TOP PICKS

LOST IN LACONIA & NH OUTLOOK SPECIAL

For nearly a century, individuals and families, including children, who were branded as "feebleminded" and a danger to society, were banished to a life of isolation and total segregation at the Laconia State School. LOST IN LACONIA traces the history of the institution, and includes interviews with former residents, families and people who worked there. 5/2 @ 8 p.m.

Following this wrenching documentary, Richard Ager speaks with the producer of the film as well as a former resident, on a special NH Outlook @ 9 p.m.

MASTERPIECE CLASSIC South Riding

A feisty schoolteacher returns to her north England home and is drawn to a man who despises everything she stands for on South Riding, Winifred Holtby's 1936 novel of social consciousness and secret romance.
5/21 from 8 - 11 p.m.

A Day to Reflect and Remember

To commemorate and honor those who have served our country, NHPTV will air special programs on May 29, including The Last Ridge @ 2 p.m., Hold at All Costs @ 3 p.m., the National Memorial Day Concert @ 8 p.m., and concluding with On the Wing @ 9:30 p.m.

Freedom Riders: AMERICAN EXPERIENCE

Threatened. Attacked. Jailed. Could you get on the bus? In 1961, segregation seemed to have an overwhelming grip on American society. That is, until an integrated band of college students decided to risk everything and ride Greyhound buses bound for the Deep South. They called themselves the Freedom Riders.
